KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.
We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would involve the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in one is made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.
We favor a Tariff so regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market to the producer; and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity. We believe that such a system will defray every Government expense, gradually liquidate all indebtedness, restore public confidence and redress to the wear the undue excitement now prevailing concerning the currency. In view of the past financial history of the Democratic party, its devotion to the old state bank system and wildcat tendencies, we affirm that the Republican party can be more safely trusted to regulate the financial system of the Nation.
We favor an American policy which will protect Americans and American interests in any part of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with struggling Republics rather than ignorant monarchies.
Uncle Sam's Shortage.
The deficit in the National Treasury for the present fiscal year—from July 1st to date—is $21,157,352 81.
As long as it has developed that Mr. RUMMANS is so conversant with Latin, why not go to the very bottom of the matter and find out whether he is not the modest(?) possessor of a great many more wonderful accomplishments?
WHAT other particular qualification has Mr. RUMMANS for the high and important office of Senator besides a knowledge of Latin? Surely something besides this is needed, and intelligent men are not going to be bamboozled into the belief that he is something wonderful, even though he may have a smattering of Cicerone.
Does any one know for certain that Mr. RUMMANS really does know Latin? Mightn't there be a mistake right here something akin to that made by the fellow down in Texas, who thought he had a call to preach, when it was developed that the call he heard was only that of some of the neighbors calling up hogs? The matter is of sufficient importance, we think, to be more closely scrutinized, so it will not do to jump at conclusions in so grave and important a matter.

It may be that it's dog Latin with which Mr. RUMMANS finds himself afflicted.
As the most valuable diamond in the rough gives no promise of brilliancy or value, so it may not be told what wonderful parts this son of Lewis possesses until he shall have passed through the crucible of a political campaign.
We would advise the Democrats to lay claim for Mr. HARRISON that he knows Greek and Hebrew, as Mr. RUMMANS has had his pick and choice of the languages, and was so modest as only to select Latin. Of course, one story's good until another's told, and Mr. RUMMANS has told his.
THE shortage in Uncle Sam's Treasury was Saturday increased by $150,165-58, and amounts to $11,273,694 70 for the month, $21,157,352 81 for the fiscal year, and $133,765,836 57 for the Cleveland Administration. Gee whizz, what a magnificent record you Democrats are making at Washington!
SO SOON as men progress sufficiently in knowledge(?) as that they can dogmatically state there is no GOD, then they look to be pronounced wonderfully smart. Perhaps in this category may be found Mr. J. DUDLEY RUMMANS, who lays claim to having Latin and other minor matters at his tongue's end.
If Mr. RUMMANS had seen fit to have gone on in the even tenor of an insurance agent this community, likely, would never have known what a prodigy in the way of learning, &c., there was in our midst. As it is, we are indebted for the information to the modest(?) hankering of a single individual after political preferment.
THE LEDGER Editor, for nearly thirty years, has been condemning the trickery and meanness of the Democratic party. For this he has received the plaudits of Republicans. But now come a few Republicans who want him to stultify his record by endorsing in his own party that which he has condemned in the other! Oh, consistency! thou art a pinchbeck jewel!
If anybody wants to know who THE LEDGER was in favor of for State Senator, it has no hesitancy in saying that it was in favor of Colonel M. C. RUSSELL. Mr. DAVIS readily proposed to get out of the way and support Mr. RUSSELL; but "DUD" wouldn't, and there was nothing left but to let the Lewis county tax dodger take the purchased nomination—and wallop him at the polls! Mr. DAVIS, as is known to every one who knows anything at all about the matter, never sought the nomination, and agreed to accept only on condition that it came to him in a proper manner.

BOLD ATTEMPT
To Rob a Bank in a Nebraska Village.
Masked Man Surprises the Cashier and Demands the Funds.
The Alarm Was Given and the Citizens Opened Fire, Which Was Returned—The Robber Being Wounded and Surrendered—The Money Taken Was Recovered.
HARRISBURG, Neb., Oct. 22.—A bold attempt was made Monday afternoon to rob the Banker County bank of this place. A masked robber entered the bank at 4 o'clock and demanded the funds of Cashier Carlisle. The robber had some difficulty in drawing his revolver from his belt and Mr. Carlisle ran out of the side door into the street giving the alarm. The citizens gathered with guns and as the robber came out opened fire, and after an exchange of two dozen shots the robber ran and was shot in the leg by a rifle ball and surrendered.
In his haste he had overlooked most of the bank's funds, only taking small change amounting to $167.
The man says his name is Graham, and that he is from Scottsbluff county. The wound is not considered dangerous. No one was hurt and the banker recovered all the money.
HURLED INTO ETERNITY.
Four Men Killed by a Panhandle Train Near Steubenville.
STREUBENVILLE, O., Oct. 22.—Four men were hurled into eternity at 7:30 Monday morning at Miller's Station crossing, on the Panhandle railroad, by east-bound accommodation No. 56. The men were from Youngstown, near Latrobe, in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, and their bodies were horribly mangled. Their names are: Edward Cogan, 18, a driver; Samuel Cogan, Jr., 20; Samuel Cogan, Sr., a plasterer; John Campbell, 26, a hodecarrier.
The men were working for Jesse Cogan, who had a plastering contract under George C. Anderson & Son, of Latrobe. They had started for Miller's in a wagon and when near the railroad crossing saw the accommodation and started the horses on the run to cross the track. The engineer says he did not see the wagon until he was right on top of it, as there is a sharp curve at this point, and the engine struck the wagon about in the middle, demolishing it and killing all four men. The horse escaped uninjured.
After the coroner's inquest the bodies were shipped to Youngstown. The engineer claims to have applied the air pressure as soon as he saw the wagon, but he could not check the train in time.
BLOODLESS DUEL.
Alabama Editors Exchange a Few Shots—Neither Hurt.
HUNTSVILLE, Ala., Oct. 22.—There was a bloodless duel here Monday morning between Frank Coleman, editor of the Daily Argus, and Robert I. O'Neal, editor of the Mercury. An editorial in the Mercury of Saturday reflected severely on the Argus in its attitude toward Gov. Oates. The Argus pronounced some statements therein a lie. The two editors met shortly afterwards. Coleman demanded an apology which O'Neal refused to make and then firing began. Five shots were exchanged with no more harmful result than bullet holes in the clothing of each party.
To Prison for Life.
CARLINSVILLE, Ill., Oct. 22.—Myers, Frost and Bryant, who were on trial here for the murder of a Chicago & Alton engineer, Frank Holmes, of Bloomington, in an attempted train robbery last spring at this place were found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment for life. The first ballot stood for hanging five, life imprisonment 7. Myers moved for a new trial.
Double Suicide.
BERLIN, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Tageblatt from Vienna says that Field Marshal Dunst-Adelsheim and his wife have committed suicide. The field marshal was 72 years old, and his wife was 50 years of age. Their self-destruction is attributed to financial troubles. Field Marshal Dunst-Adelsheim had been retired from the army on a pension for some time past.
Great Britain's Ultimatum.
PARIS, Oct. 22.—The Figaro, alluding to the Venezuelan dispute, expresses the opinion that the system of issuing ultimatums which is now becoming a habit with Great Britain may be greatly prejudicial to the general peace.
Oscar Williams Soid.
VERSAILES, Ky., Oct. 22.—Gus Macey, representing Edward Decernes, sold the bay gelding, Oscar Williams, 2125, by George Simmons, to a Mr. Gray, of New York, for $3,000.
Wiped Out by Fire.
EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Oct. 22.—Fire Monday morning wiped out the business portion of Fairchild, a village in the eastern part of Eau Claire county. The loss will be fully $75,000.
English Historian Dead.
LONDON, Oct. 22.—Henry Reeves, B. C. D. C. L., the English historian, died at Christ church Monday, aged 82 years. He was for many years editor of the Edinburgh Review.
A Mother's Revenge.

Ten Children Perish in a Fire.
WARSAW, Oct. 22.—The Children's home at Stargard, in the Saxonesek district of Polish Prussia, has been destroyed by fire. Ten children perished in the flames.
To Great Cleveland.
JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 22.—Gov. Stone and party left here at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon to attend the Atlanta exposition and to greet President Cleveland.

KENTUCKY NEWS.
The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.
THREE BUILDINGS BURNED.
TOMPKINSVILLE Post Office and Masonic Hall in Ruins.
TOMPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—Three large buildings of this place were destroyed by fire. The fire originated in the Masonic building, in which was the Masonic hall, the post office and Mrs. J. A. Scott's millinery store. The flames spread to the Flippin building, in which was Prof. W. S. Emert's residence, Mrs. Sallie Flippin's millinery store, Dr. Duncan's office and A. H. Chism's silversmith shop. The Baptist church with most of its fixtures also burned. The total loss of buildings is estimated at about $3,000 and the contents perhaps more. A large part of the United States mail was destroyed. The fire originated in the upper story of the Masonic building. Cause unknown. The buildings and contents were a total loss, as there was no insurance.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS
To Be Kept Out of Politics at Lexington—Candidates Withdraw.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.—The effort to keep the Lexington public schools out of politics may yet be successful. Messrs. Chas. Kerr, G. D. Wilson and D. E. Frazee have declined the nomination. They say they have already accepted in good faith the nomination for members of the board of education upon a non-partisan ticket, and give it as their opinion that the schools should be clear of politics. The declination of these men to make the race as the nominees of the democratic committee may cause the ticket offered by the committee to be called off, leaving the non-partisan ticket, composed of men, and the women's ticket, half of men and half of women.
GOING TO LOUISVILLE.
Lexington Trotting Men Will Be There in Force This Week.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.—Many of the horsemen have left for Louisville to be present at the big trotting meeting which begins there Monday. The fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' association was a success. The association is said to have cleared between $10,000 and $15,000 on the meeting, and much of this will be used to make the meeting next fall a success. The fastest time made at the meeting was 2:05, by Robert J., and which is now the track record. Three world's records were broken and over $75,000 given in stakes and purses.
Big List for 1897 Stakes.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—The entries to the Kentucky Derby, Clark and Oaks for 1897 are in the hands of Secretary Price, and give assurance of great contests in these classic stakes of the New Louisville Jockey club eighteen months hence. With California still to hear from, the entries show 159 nominations for the Derby, 137 for the Clark and 116 for the Oaks. These numbers, while not so great as last season's phenomenal list, are very gratifying.
Kentucky Monuments for Chickamauga.
NEWPORT, Ky., Oct. 22.—Wm. Nelson Post is the first Grand Army post in the state to make a move in the direction of having Kentucky's dead honored as other states have honored their fallen heroes by the erection of monuments to their memory on the battlefield of Chickamauga. Nearly two thousand of Kentucky's sons fell on the famous battle field and no monument is there to bear testimony to the fact.
Fatal Quarrel Over Cards.
MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Oct. 22.—Andrew Jackson, Monday evening shot and killed Maj. Campbell in a restaurant belonging to Crockett Evans. Both parties are colored. They quarreled over a game of cards. Jackson escaped to the mountains. Police are in search of him and he will probably be captured before morning.
Child Burned to Death.
HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 22.—The 3-year-old daughter of Thomas Whitfield, residing three miles from this city, was burned to death Monday. The child's mother was washing in the yard by a wood fire, when the child got so near it that her dress caught from the flames.
Both Were Wounded.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.—In a shooting affray between Ed. Price and another Negro, known as Silas Bird, near Pleasant Green church, Price was shot over the heart and Silas Bird through the hand. Price's condition is dangerous.
Fatal Quarrel at Mayfield.
PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 22.—Jesse Moss, colored, of Mayfield, was shot and killed by Charles Bollin, white. Two men were fighting in Moss' place and were encouraged by Bollin. Moss interfered and was shot.
Popular Horseman Seriously Ill.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 22.—Thomas C. McDowell, the popular horseman, ex-internal revenue collector, and son of Maj. H. C. McDowell, of Ashland, is seriously ill of malarial fever, and his life is despaired of.
Clothes Caught From the Grate.
MOREHEAD, Ky., Oct. 22.—The 3-year-old child of Charles Madden, living near Soldier, was probably fatally burned Monday. The child wandered near an open fireplace and its clothes became ignited.
Tod Vettito Killed.
ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., Oct. 22.—Tod Vettito, deputy marshal here, was shot and killed Saturday night. Tod Franklin, colored, was badly wounded. Linas Warren is reported to have done the shooting.
Accidentally Killed.
MOREHEAD, Ky., Oct. 22.—While Allen Slusher, jailer of Magoffin county, was gathering corn near Sellersville his pistol dropped from its holster and exploded. Slusher was instantly killed.

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN
WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?
Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
